Saudi Arabia warns militants: Repent or die

SAUDI ARABIA'S GOVERNMENT has issued a stark warning to militants, demanding they repent or face the consequences. The statement, released by the Ministry of Defense, came in the wake of a series of attacks across the kingdom, including the bombing of a mosque in Mecca and a bus in Riyadh. The government insists that it will not tolerate terrorism and will continue to fight against the forces of extremism.

The Saudi government has also announced that it will launch a military operation to clear the southern region of the country of militant forces. The operation is expected to be a major offensive against the al-Qaeda network, which has been active in the region for several years. The government has vowed to bring the region back under control and to restore peace and stability to the kingdom.

9/11 panel uncovers gaps in US defense system

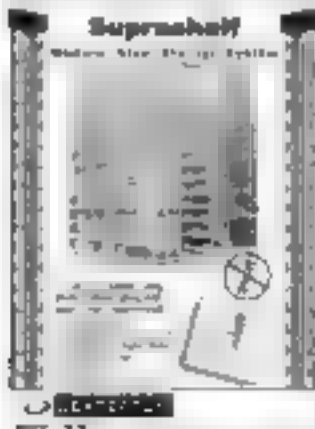

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP) — A panel of experts convened by the 9/11 Commission has found that the U.S. defense system was not prepared for the Sept. 11 attacks. The panel, which includes former defense officials and experts, has identified several key areas where the system fell short, including intelligence gathering, communication, and the ability to respond to a large-scale attack on the U.S. homeland.

The panel's findings are part of a broader report that is expected to be released in the coming months. The report will provide a detailed account of the events of Sept. 11 and offer recommendations for how the U.S. can better protect itself from future attacks.

One of the key findings of the panel is that the U.S. intelligence community was not aware of the plot to attack the World Trade Center. The panel found that there were several warnings that the U.S. intelligence community should have acted on, but they were not properly processed or analyzed.

The panel also found that the U.S. military was not prepared to respond to a large-scale attack on the U.S. homeland. The panel found that the military's command and control system was not designed to handle a large-scale attack, and that the military's ability to coordinate its response was severely hampered.

The panel's findings are a stark reminder of the need for a more robust and integrated defense system. The panel's recommendations will be used to guide the development of a new defense strategy and to improve the U.S. defense system's ability to protect the U.S. homeland from future attacks.

Plenary session seen as next battleground

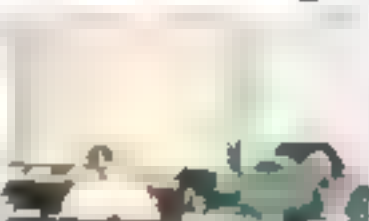

MANILA, June 11 (AP) — The Philippine House of Representatives is expected to hold a plenary session on Monday, June 12, to discuss the proposed constitutional amendment to allow the president to run for a second term.

The amendment, which was passed by the Senate on June 10, has been a controversial issue since its introduction. It has drawn strong support from some quarters but also faces significant opposition.

House Speaker Juan Ponce Enrile is expected to lead the effort to pass the amendment in the House. He has indicated that the House will hold a series of hearings and debates before reaching a final decision.

The amendment would allow the president to run for a second term, a provision that has been a long-standing goal of some political groups. However, it has also raised concerns about the potential for abuse of power and the erosion of democratic principles.

The plenary session on Monday is seen as a critical moment in the process. It will be a test of the support for the amendment among the members of the House.

Abstract

PDIC plans major reorganization

By Dave C. Barden

PHILADELPHIA — The Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. (FDIC) is planning a major reorganization of its operations, according to a source familiar with the plans. The source said the FDIC is considering a number of options, including the possibility of creating a new agency to handle the insurance of deposits.

The FDIC is currently responsible for insuring deposits at member banks. It also provides for the payment of insured deposits in the event of a bank failure. The FDIC is currently a part of the Federal Reserve System.

Napocor power sales up 2.2% in first 4 months

By Joseph L. ...

MANILA — The National Power Corporation (Napocor) reported that its power sales increased by 2.2 percent in the first four months of this year compared to the same period last year. The increase was attributed to a combination of factors, including a rise in demand for electricity and a decrease in the number of days with no power.

Move on Napocor debt backed

MANILA, Philippines—The Philippine government is expected to move forward with a plan to restructure the debt of the National Power Corporation (Napocor), a move that could significantly impact the country's financial markets. Analysts are closely watching the developments, as the government seeks to address the growing debt burden of the state-owned utility. The plan involves a series of measures, including the issuance of new bonds and the restructuring of existing debt, to ensure the long-term viability of Napocor and the stability of the power sector. The government's approach is seen as a critical step in managing the country's fiscal health and maintaining investor confidence.

The test tax

By Paul L. Johnson

Editor, Business Week

THE PROPOSAL TO TEST THE WATERS OF A NEW TAX SYSTEM IS A SIGN OF THE GOVERNMENT'S COMMITMENT TO REFORM. THE CURRENT SYSTEM IS OVERLY COMPLEX AND BURDENSOME, AND A SIMPLIFIED SYSTEM WOULD BE A WELCOME CHANGE. THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD PROCEED WITH CAUTION, HOWEVER, TO ENSURE THAT THE NEW SYSTEM IS FAIR AND EFFECTIVE. THE TEST SHOULD BE CONDUCTED IN A CONTROLLED MANNER, WITH ADEQUATE MONITORING AND EVALUATION. THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD ALSO CONSIDER THE IMPACT OF THE TEST ON SMALL BUSINESSES AND INDIVIDUALS, WHOSE VOICES SHOULD BE HEARD IN THE PROCESS. THE TEST IS A CRUCIAL STEP IN THE REFORM PROCESS, AND THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE OPEN TO FEEDBACK AND ADJUSTMENTS AS NEEDED.

HOME

I just read your column in Home and I was so inspired by the advice you gave that I decided to try it. I had been thinking about redecorating my house for a long time, but I was so busy that I couldn't find the time. Now I have a plan and I'm excited about it. I'm going to start with the living room and then move on to the other rooms. I'm sure my house will look great and I'll be able to relax in it. Thank you for the advice and the inspiration.

My house is a small one, but I want to make it feel like a home. I'm going to use the advice you gave in your column to make it feel like a home. I'm sure it will be a great success. Thank you for the advice and the inspiration.

Asleep
